

AN EVENING

WITH

JEFFREY ARCHER

Windsor Conservatives

01753 678693 office@windsorconservatives.com

Join us for a drinks reception followed by a three-course dinner and talk by the remarkable Jeffrey Archer. A master of story telling and a best-selling author, his books are simply one aspect of what has been a distinctly colourful life. From politics to political scandal, Lord Archer walked the corridors of power at Westminster for many years and was for a time at the heart of the Conservative Party.

We look forward to the release of his latest novel, 'Cometh the Hour', the penultimate book of The Clifton Chronicles, and to an unforgettable evening of good food, delightful company and fantastic tales from Lord Archer himself.
